Berengaria Quits Search For British Ship And Crew Of 27

Valentia, Irish Free State, Nov. 6 (AP)—The great liner Berengaria and the Dutch steamer Boskdyk abandoned their search today for the British cargo ship Saxilby and her crew of 27.

The two ships, which responded yesterday morning to an SOS announced by wireless they had found no trace of the little British freighter or her crew and were forced to give up their efforts.

The Saxilby crew, which abandoned their helpless ship in the mountainous waves of a storm, were feared lost in their tiny lifeboats.

The withdrawal of the Berengaria and the Boskdyk was believed to have left only the S. S. Manchester regiment in the quest.

The only hope that the men might still be alive was the slender possibility the high wind may have driven the lifeboats and their parent ship far from the spot from which the Saxilby sent out her last distress call.

It was toward this position, about 300 miles off the Irish coast, that rescue efforts were directed.

Bring Vanderbilt's Body To New York

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 16 (AP)—The body of William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., 26, scion of the famous New York family who lost his life in a South Carolina motor accident, was enroute to New York today by train.

Accompanying the body was Erskine Gwynne, relative and companion, who received minor injuries as Vanderbilt's car crashed into a truck at Ridgeland, S. C., yesterday. The youth's chauffeur, J. W. Guppy, who was injured seriously, remained in a Savannah hospital.

Officers who investigated the accident said Vanderbilt, enroute from Miami to New York, was at the wheel at the time of the crash. The investigators said they saw "no reason for the accident" which occurred on a long, level straightaway.

NO SUCCESS IN SEARCH FOR OLEY AND GEARY

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 16 (AP)—Police today reported no success in their search for John Oley and Percy Geary, under indictment at Albany in connection with the kidnapping last July of John J. O'Connell, Jr., nephew of Edward J. and Daniel P. O'Connell, Albany Democratic leaders. The search was begun after Chief of Police Martin L. Cadin received a tip in a letter from Albany's chief, David Smul, that Oley was reported to be at the home of an aunt living in a Syracuse suburb, while Geary was living on "Onaroad street". There is no such street, but police combed Oneida and Ontario streets without result. The search for the man also was in vain.

Stripped of Their Shirts.

Culverville, Armagh, North of Ireland, Nov. 16 (AP)—Seven members of Gen. Eoin O'Duffy's Shirts were seized in a dance hall here today, stripped of their shirts and forced to walk in the bitter cold six miles to Carrickmacross in the Irish Free State. The Irish Free State government outlawed O'Duffy's Blue Shirt National Guard August 21 and set up a military tribunal with the power of "life or death" over the state's enemies. The Blue Shirts were banned as an armed menace.

Charged With Murder.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 16 (AP)—Norman Baldwin and Mae Blaisdell, today were charged with murder, first degree, in indictments returned by the grand jury, in connection with its investigation into the death of Joseph McGaugh, 73, who was beaten into unconsciousness on the night of November 15, in the kitchen of his lonely farm house near Baldwinsville. He died next day.

Expect State Will Get $25,740,000 Monthly From Civil Works Plan

Huge Sum Expected Under Federal Civil Works Program—$20,000,000 Will Be Expended—Will Provide Work for Many Men.

Washington, Nov. 16 (AP)—State officials estimated today that New York will receive $25,740,000 a month for unemployment relief under the federal civil works plan as long as the federal civil works fund of $100,000,000 lasts.

The informal estimates made today by members of the state temporary emergency relief administration were that this monthly allotment going to the state in the winter months when the relief burden is heaviest, would be larger than the original appropriation which the New York legislature voted to the administration when it was created at former Governor Roosevelt's suggestion during a special legislative session in the summer of 1931.

The original T. E. R. A. was given $25,000,000, with which to work, $5,000,000 from current revenues, the remainder from a doubled personal income tax.

While Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief and civil works administrator, explained the civil works plan to state and local executives last night, Governor Herbert H. Lehman was kept in close touch with developments by long distance telephone.

Governor Lehman is at the Mount Sinai Hospital in New York convalescing after an operation for appendicitis. Hopkins was head of the New York relief organization until last spring, when he resigned to come to Washington as federal administrator.

According to the tentative estimates which Chairman Alfred H. Schoekopf of the New York T. E. R. A. and his aides studied after hearing Hopkins' explanation, New York now has approximately 310,000 families on home and work relief. The number of men it can put to work under the prospective allotment from the civil works fund is 297,000, larger than the number for any other state. In addition, approximately $9,000 would be expended on federal public works administration projects within the state, making a total of 396,000 men to be paid at an average of approximately $65 per month. The monthly total would be $25,740,000.

The tentative T. E. R. A. plan is to take 197,000 men from the state work relief rolls at once and put them on the civil works program. Later another 100,000 would be similarly transferred. There would be no changes in the home relief rolls.

Coroner, total vote cast 37,866, of which Leston DuBois received 22,845 and Michael Galletta, 15,021.

The official canvass showed total vote for mayor of city of Kingston to be 14,450, of which Harry B. Walker received 7,662, and E. Frank Flanagan, 6,818.

Alderman-at-Large, City of Kingston, total vote cast 14,034, of which Conrad J. Helselman received 7,702 and Sam N. Mann, 6,332.

FASHION FULL OF CLEVER SURPRISES

Things Are Not What They Seem Nowadays.

Cold has gone a-wool gathering. There is scarcely a new wool fabric now on the market that isn't just all warped and woolled up with gold threads running in all directions. Chenille fabrics are full of 'em and are they snazzy? You can tell me!

Pockets are not just things to put things in any more. De Morina, the American couturier who came to Paris and made a big splash, has made a pocket to a muff—and like it, too. The envelope pocket is stitched on at top and bottom instead of around three sides, applied to the front of a coat and in the cold fingers go to hide from winter's icy gaze! He puts them on jackets, too, and makes them out of fabric as well as fur.

In fact, nothing is like it was. It looks like what was, but if it actually is, then it's a failure, for the idea back of lots of modern novelties is the "You-never-think-I-am" motif. That's what makes modern clothes and things so much fun—springing surprises on us at every turn and twist of the material.

CONTRASTING FUR
By CHERIE NICHOLAS

There is a tendency this season, to work along the theory that two furs are better than one. A successful outcome of this line of thought is presented in the illustration. This stunning double-breasted waistcoat of leopard worn with a straight coat of nutria in three-quarter length will brighten up the fashion parade during the coming months. The two-kind fur idea is also developed in other interesting ways. For instance a brown and beige ensemble is trimmed with borderings of fox in two colors—a row of dark cinnamon fox and a row of very pale beige fox. Also white ermine trim white galak or perhaps dark seal and so on and so on the story is repeated.

FLASHES FROM PARIS

Silks and wools reveal a glint of metallic threads.

Wine, prune and purplish shades are emphasized.

Metal and strass accents formalize tiny dinner hats.

Lace of spider-web delicacy fashion high-style dinner gowns.

Evening shoes twinkle with mirror-glass and crystal ornamentation.

Waist-depth boleros and capes of white ermine are frequent among new evening wraps.

Borderings of artificial flowers outline hemlines in the same manner as pleated ruchings.

Rough Tweed Fabrics Are Strong Autumn Favorites

The lady who started her career knitting over a window box has befriended the black sheep. Miss Elsa Schiaparelli, with both eyes wide open, boasts of the black sheep in her family. But in this instance, reference is not made to the pages which should be torn out of the album, but rather to the rough and decked tweed textures used in her new collection. Cardigans in brilliant honeysuckle and "Black-sheep" are accepted favorites at this house, and tweed topcoats get away from the amateurish with amazingly daring flannel linings.

Lines of Shoulder Given Emphasis in Fall Styles

Since both the position of the waistline and the skirt length, which heretofore were leading fashion points of the silhouette, seem to have been practically stabilized, the whole attention has become centered upon the shoulders. Many leading dressmakers seem to agree upon emphasized shoulder lines, and from their latest creations we can foresee that this tendency will not only last this fall, but may be even increased.

TWO BEARS AND TWO BEARLS
SHOT NEAR WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Nov. 16.—The winds of the deer season credited two Wadsworth youths with a deer apiece and Martin Delong with two bears, one fully grown, the other a cub.

The deer, medium-sized bucks, were shot by Aaron Vandebogart, Jr., brother of David, the deer "trapper", and Nelson Shultz, on Monday, in the vicinity of Tice Ten Eyck Mountain. The two bears were shot by Nartin Delong in the Mint Hollow farm on Monday. The bears when sighted by Delong were traveling in a group of five. The remaining three took to immediate cover when the shooting began.

Night at Y. W. C. A.

The regular Business Girls' supper at the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday night, was in line with the World Fellowship program of the National Y. W. C. A. and was worth while. There were a few announcements. Next week, Miss Emily Heyward will give a talk on Art, following the supper. Miss Ruth Bell called the attention of the girls to the bowling privileges offered them at Immanuel Lutheran Church on Thursday evenings and urged more girls to avail themselves of this privilege. Miss Bell also reminded the girls that the formation of teams added to the fun to be enjoyed in the bowling.

The program for the evening was in charge of Miss Elsie Shipman. Miss Shipman read the message from the president of the National Y. W. C. A. which calls all of the Young Women's Christian Association members to a closer following of Christ that they might, all over the world, exert an influence for real goodness, kindness and neighborliness that would be a powerful factor in world fellowship, which alone can destroy war and bring peace to the world. In order to exert such an influence each girl must see to it that her own life is patterned after the life of Christ, actually and genuinely.

Miss Shipman then announced visitors from foreign countries. The first guest came from Japan, a charming little maiden in kimono and flowered headress, Miss Beatrice Elias. Then there came two gallants from Spain, all sashed and spangled, singing a Spanish song to the accompaniment of their imaginary guitars. Misses Elsie and Marion Phillips, England was represented by a "Business Girl" who recently came from England to this country to live. Miss Irene Seymour, who told the girls some of the things that she found strange in America and a bit about her own homeland. Miss Reeves and Miss Bradburn in picturesque French peasant costumes enacted a humorous little sketch all given in admirable French. And finally Miss Sophie Schmidkonz, representing Germany, sang a pretty German peasant song accompanied by Miss Estey.

Each guest had been presented with a candle on her arrival and the program closed with the appearance of the impersonation of "World Fellowship". Miss Beatrice Fowley, who in a simply beautiful gown of white satin and carrying a lighted candle appeared to extend greetings to all and to light the candles of the girls of all nations as symbolizing the fire of friendship. They all knelt in prayer after which the entire assembly sang "Follow the Gleam." It was a very impressive service.

in Radio Address

Speaking over radio Station KYW in Chicago, a well known physician and authority on obesity, pointed out that many people who are overweight suffer from headaches, fatigue, sluggishness and loss of ambition. "The tendency of excess fat," the doctor said, "is to attack itself to vital organs and should be a matter of concern to those who are overweight."

Women everywhere are losing ten pounds or more, as they see fit, without taking dangerous thyroid extract. (which should only be taken under the direction of a physician or weight loss doctor. No need now for doctors to tell that most fat departed from their bodies. No need for people to take thyroid or special medicines.)

It is a good general remedy for the digestive system, the glands of excess fat, and reduces metabolism (body heat). Vaseline cures all disorders, no matter what they are."

$9.20. Housework is lightened when one wears a frock with such good points as this one features. One can step about comfortably in this skirt,—though it has the new straight lines, below a yoke that is smartly shaped and is a good compliment to the waist yoke, which is cut with long shoulder lines that form a sleeve over the top of the arm, and leave perfect freedom in movement, since there is no binding at the arm-eyes. The waist blouses slightly above the belt. Gingham and cotton prints as well as linens may be used for this model.

Designed in 5 sizes, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 38 will require 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. To finish with bias binding as in the large view, will require 5 1/2 yards. The width of the skirt at the lower edge is 1 1/4 yards.

Madame Bovary Wields Influence

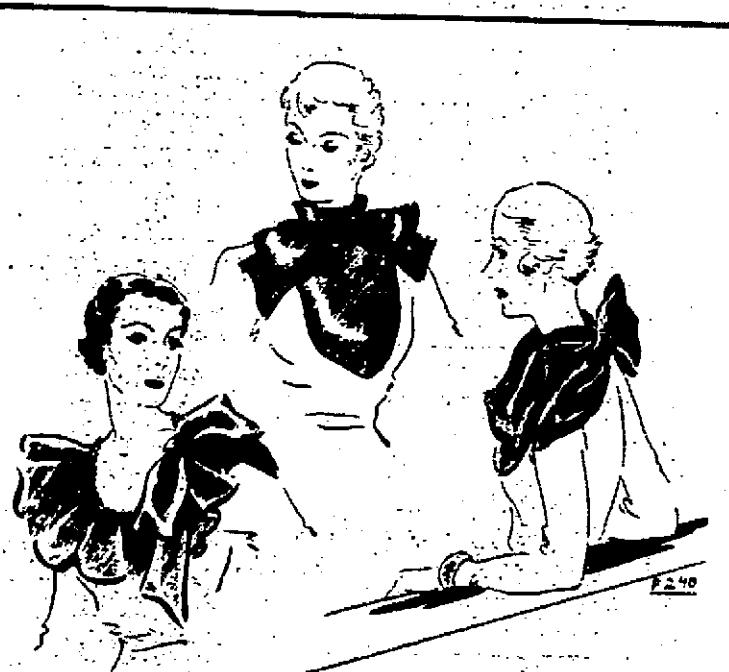

New York.—It is hard to make a definite statement as to which is the outstanding color of the season. Among the shades one thinks of in this connection however, is red. To date it is very much in evidence. Since it is of such friendly tone, with mink, and other brown furs, and may be worn effectively with black or gray ones, it must be regarded as among the winning colors. There is also a great deal of green worn, the usual amount of brown and rather more than the usual amount, or red.

Those who are always peering in to the future see the shadow of the basque on the wall. Its re-entry is timed with the presentation of Madame Bovary, a film being made in France and costumed, of course, in the 1810 manner. That era that brought not only basques, but bouquets. We know already that the bouquet has gone to our head. For this, if for no other reason, we feel confident in the fated basque, buttoned center front and ending at the throat line, with a collar or a ruche. Can you beat it?

Then there is that artist Renoir about whom we have told you before. To a recent exhibition of his pictures is credited a good deal of the current interest in basques and drawn-back skirts, ruches, bows and, once again, bouquets.

While American women have been balky about taking up with period fashions, and have reacted against them in some instances, they are bound to acknowledge their influence, even when setting out to modernize them almost beyond recognition. It looks now as though the average woman voted for being herself until six, after which she does not object to assuming a role of the sort that is most suited to her particular style—hence the contradictions in costumes at the moment.

Radiant Colors for Bib and Kerchief

In the center an emerald green bib makes a point of a very high collar and a bow under the chin.

The violet blue velveteen kerchief at the right pulls through a metal ring and may be worn backwards or sideways, according to taste.

Velveteen Is Everywhere DID YOU KNOW THAT

New York.—It is amazing to observe the frequency with which dresses trimmed with velveteen are seen worn these days. The contrast usually appears in velveteen scarfs, girdles and cuffs, and the contrast is also apparent in color.

For instance, beige woolen dresses are trimmed in brown velvet or velveteen and there are numerous examples of black, woolen or crepe dresses enlivened by bright green or red. The rufflet at the neckline and wrists is one seen often, with both green and red accented colors.

The wholehearted acceptance by smartly dressed women of the much talked of evening bandanas and diamants—of hair ornaments, suggests a wide range of these novelties for the Christmas shopper.

A BIT RUSTY BUT—

Talks to parents

Allowances

By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH
One of the quickest and easiest ways of accustoming a child to the use of money is by giving him an allowance.

The size of this allowance will depend on several factors—the financial status of the family, the probable needs of the child, and the amount of spending money usual among children.

Often the family purse is not adapted to the strain of an allowance large enough to bear comparison with "the other children." In that case a frank discussion of the situation with the youngster will generally restore him to his more limited means.

In any event the sum should be fixed and regular, and furthermore should be the child's to do with as he likes.

At times advice may be given, or a warning, but no force should be brought to bear on his use of his allowance. The purpose for which it is given is to teach him the use of money, and unless he learns by experience the lesson will have no lasting value.

The sum should not be constantly or even frequently increased by gifts from the parents or sympathizing friends, least of all when the child is facing a financial crisis.

The child must learn the results of extravagance, of carelessness, of lack of foresight, and must recognize the uses of saving and planning. None of these lessons are instinctive, nor can they be learned from books.

At times such an attitude is difficult for parents to hold. When they see a child having to forego a treat, because his allowance has been frittered away they feel hard-hearted and selfish. But in the end the child may have cause to thank them for their seeming cruelty.

Faculty Members And Hi-Y Held Banquet

An enjoyable time was held at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening, the occasion being the annual Hi-Y Faculty Banquet, when the Kingston Hi-Y club had the high school teachers as their guests and presented a well-arranged program. Harold Barta, president of the boys' Hi-Y, was the master of ceremonies and kept the program well in hand. Miss Mary Matthews, president of the girls' Hi-Y, made the address of welcome to the faculty to which Clarence Dunn, the high school principal, responded. Guests were also brought to the group by B. C. Van Ingen, superintendent of schools.

Richard Whiston, the faculty adviser of the boys' Hi-Y Club, was presented with a gift by the boys in appreciation of the time and efforts he puts into Hi-Y activity and also of his fellowship at Hi-Y meetings. The presentation speech, made by Lawrence Van Etten, vice president of the boys' Hi-Y, and Mr. Whiston's words of acceptance were roundly applauded by the whole gathering.

Roger Eastman, a song leader, accompanied on the piano by Ruth Flicker and Hilda Boerker, led the group in some peppy songs which helped to enliven the occasion and Roger Mable and Wilson Tinney added a great deal to the merriment by staging a comic skit.

The main address of the evening was delivered by Prof. W. J. Reagan, principal of the Oakwood School in Poughkeepsie. The speaker stressed the ideal of mutual confidence and cooperation of teacher and student as well as throwing out a warning against the curtailment of education because of the depression. He also challenged the students to be "time-minded," thinking of the ultimate accomplishments of their lives and not to become discouraged by temporary set-backs or obstacles.

About 100 students and teachers were present and all seemed to enjoy the fellowship presented in the different environment than the class room. A social hour followed the conclusion of Mr. Reagan's address.

Lex the Bladder With Juniper Oil, Bacha, Etc.

Drive out the impurities and excess salts that cause irritation, burning and frequent urination. Juniper oil is pleasant to the taste in the form of BUCKETS, the bladder catheter, also containing Buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if no relief is obtained, get a doctor. If you are bothered with a headache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you will find no better after this cleaning and will get your regular sleep. WASHINGTON—Close observers of the supreme court will have been expecting changes in the personnel of that body for some time due to retirement, death or removal of the justices, here have their successors chosen by the court.

Four members of the court are eligible for retirement. They are Justices Van Devanter, McReynolds, Brandeis and Sutherland.

They have been handed down by the court recently five decisions in each of which the justices have filed their votes. For various reasons the role of the deciding justice was not cast.

Usual procedure in the cases is for the court to remand it to the docket for further argument. There is always the chance that before it comes up again there will be a change in the court personnel or the views of a justice.

This time, however, the tie decisions confirming the ruling of the lower courts were allowed to stand.

This could be taken as an indication that none of the four justices contemplates quitting the bench just yet.

A heavy shower Monday afternoon took practically all of the snow off the fields and left comparatively little of the two recent snowfalls in the woods.

The big buck brought by Rudolph DeSilva out of the Woodland Valley was dressed and hung on the front stoop of the DeSilva store where it attracted much attention from passersby on the north boulevard. The deer, one of the largest taken this season, had 14-point antlers.

Speakeasies Will Be Made to Pay Sales Tax

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 16 (AP)—New York state is going to take a parting shot at the speakeasy.

With the repeal of prohibition less than three weeks ago, the remaining illegal establishments in the state will be forced to contribute to the one per cent retail sales tax on the liquid they dispense in their final month.

Decision to this effect was made yesterday at a conference here of state tax commissioners and district directors and superintendents.

Lists of the speakeasies have been compiled by the commission and will be turned over to sales tax examiners for inauguration of a thorough canvass.

Books and records are to be inspected, Commissioner Graves said, and the payment of a correct tax amount will be demanded.

"Very few speakeasies have filed returns in compliance with the law," explained the commissioner, "but we are determined that they shall not evade the tax which legitimate business has so graciously accepted and paid, the commission should realize a very substantial sum from this drive."

"These establishments have made enormous profits even through the period of depression and there is no reason why they should not contribute their share toward the cost of government. We intend to see that they do."

The retail sales tax law applies to everything from chewing gum to automobiles with the exception of food and gasoline. Beer and wine are included in the taxable articles, even though they are also taxed under the state alcoholic beverage control law.

The state collects one per cent of the gross receipts of places selling beer over bars or at tables, or delivering it for consumption in homes.

A GLIMPSE BEHIND THE CHRISTMAS SEAL

THIS IS THE 1933 ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS CHRISTMAS SEAL. FOR 27 YEARS CHRISTMAS SEALS HAVE FOUGHT TUBERCULOSIS IN THIS COUNTRY. THEY ARE SOLD FOR A PENNY EACH BY THE 2,064 AFFILIATED TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATIONS AND FINANCE A PROGRAM OF FREE CLINICS, NURSING SERVICE, EDUCATION, TUBERCULIN TESTING, PREVENTORIA AND RESEARCH. THE DISEASE IS CENTURIES OLD. THE PRINCIPLE WEAPONS IN THE FIGHT AGAINST IT WERE CONTRIBUTED BY A HANDFUL OF PERSONS DURING THE LAST 135 YEARS.

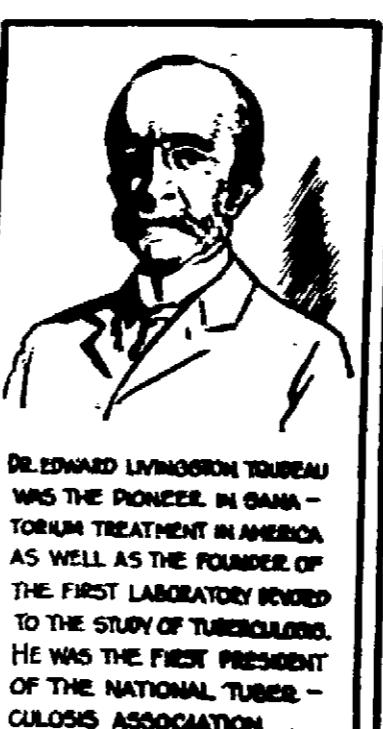

THEOPHILE LAENNÉC, THE FIRST OF THESE, WAS BORN IN 1761 AND LIVED FOR ONLY 39 YEARS. BUT DURING THAT TIME HE CLARIFIED MEDICAL KNOWLEDGE ABOUT DISEASES OF THE CHEST AND INVENTED THE STETHOSCOPE, WHICH HELPED DOCTORS TO MAKE MORE ACCURATE DIAGNOSIS OF TUBERCULOSIS.

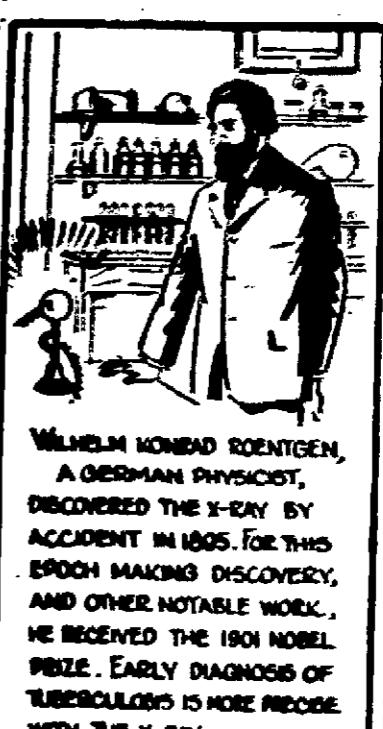

YEARS LATER IN 1882, ROBERT KOCH, A GERMAN COUNTRY DOCTOR, STARTLED THE WORLD WITH PROOF THAT TUBERCULOSIS IS CAUSED BY A TINY GERM. HE SHOWED FOR THE FIRST TIME HOW THESE MICROBES COULD BE GROWN AND STUDIED THROUGH A MICROSCOPE. THIS DISCOVERY GAVE TO MAN KIND A DEFINITE FOOTING IN ITS BATTLE AGAINST THE UNSEEN ENEMY.

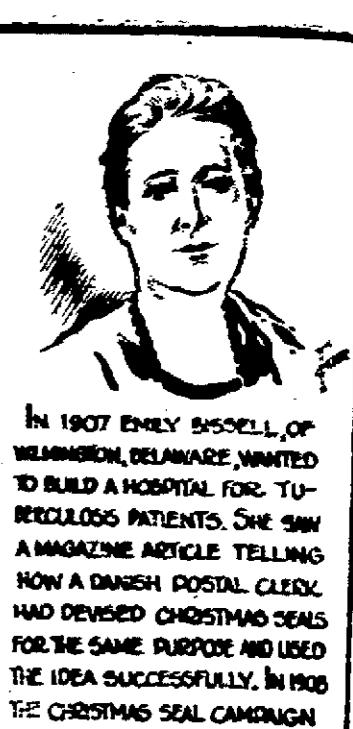

THEN WE HAVE THE CONTRIBUTION OF CLEMENS PIQUET, FAMOUS VENNESE CHILDREN'S SPECIALIST. USING THE FACT THAT A DROP OF TUBERCULIN PLACED UNDER THE SKIN WILL INDICATE THE PRESENCE OF TUBERCLE BACILLI IN THE BODY HE SHOWED HOW LARGE GROUPS OF CHILDREN COULD BE EXAMINED QUICKLY.

DR. EDWARD LIVINGSTON TRUDEAU WAS THE PIONEER IN CHAM-TORUM TREATMENT IN AMERICA AS WELL AS THE FOUNDER OF THE FIRST LABORATORY DEDICATED TO THE STUDY OF TUBERCULOSIS. HE WAS THE FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION.

WILHELM CONRAD RÖNTGEN, A GERMAN PHYSICIST, DISCOVERED THE X-RAY BY ACCIDENT IN 1895. FOR THIS EPOCH MAKING DISCOVERY, AND OTHER NOTABLE WORK, HE RECEIVED THE 1901 NOBEL PRIZE. EARLY DIAGNOSIS OF TUBERCULOSIS IS MORE ACCURATE WITH THE X-RAY.

IN 1907 EMILY BASSELL, OF WILMINGTON, DELAWARE, WANTED TO BUILD A HOSPITAL FOR TUBERCULOSIS PATIENTS. SHE SAW A MAGAZINE ARTICLE TELLING HOW A DANISH POSTAL CLERK HAD DESIGNED CHRISTMAS SEALS FOR THE SAME PURPOSE AND USED THE IDEA SUCCESSFULLY. IN 1908 THE CHRISTMAS SEAL CAMPAIGN BECAME A NATIONAL PROJECT.

The communication stated that these figures had been compiled prior to the 1933 assessments and if any town felt that the 1933 assessments altered this situation that such facts be communicated to the state. The communication was referred to the committee of equalization.

Communications were received from several people seeking aid as a needy blind person. These requests had been investigated by the state authorities and aid was recommended. Isaac Decker of Krehonkson sought $22 per month but in the absence of Supervisor Wells of Wawarsing the request was received and filed but no action was taken.

Ephraim Krom of Leibhardt on motion of Supervisor Markle was granted $20 per month from November 1 to December 31, 1933, the sum to be paid to the welfare officer of the town.

Charles Clineman of Church street, New Paltz, on motion of Supervisor DuBois was granted blind relief of $21 per month until December 31, 1933.

Supervisor Clark of Rosendale moved a resolution to place in the 1933 tax levy tax on property in the town which had been omitted from the 1932 tax list. It was the Herman Wolf property at Tillson, assessed at $100. The school tax for 1932 will be collected with the 1933 general tax at the 1932 rate. Over under the rule.

Supervisor Lamouree of Saugerties also moved that several properties which had been omitted from the last year tax roll be added to the 1933 list and that the 1932 tax be collected with the 1933 tax at the 1932 rate. The properties were as follows: Henry Bertram property in Centerville Fire District. Assessed at $100. Henry Bertram property, town of Thirteen pieces of property owned by the state of New York in the town of Saugerties valued at $3,646 were requested to be added to the general tax roll of the town.

Over under the rule. Resolutions from the previous session were called up and adopted and the board then adjourned until Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Famous Cassie Chadwick

The famous Cassie Chadwick was regarded as one of the cleverest women to succeed in swindling of bankers and others, for which she was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment in 1906; she died two years later in the Ohio state penitentiary. She was born in 1887 at Elizabethville and she was first tried for forgery at the age of sixteen. A short sketch of her criminal life is given in Charles King's "Remarkable Rogues." For a time she practiced clairvoyance; she posed as the daughter of a former American President, the widow of an earl, etc. She forged the name of Andrew Carnegie to get a big bank loan, while the frauds led to the failure of one Ohio bank. Her cleverness in extracting large sums from millionaires through her impostures gave her the name of the "Madame Humblet of America."

Ginseng Popular in Orient

Ginseng is a plant of the species Panax, the root of which is used in the preparation of medicine and it is most widely used in the Orient. It is native to Korea and Manchuria but the product of Korea is considered the best quality. American ginseng is a member of the same species and is extensively exported, the wild variety generally considered the best and bringing the highest price. Prices vary with the market and quality of the roots but they generally range from $5 to $15 per pound. There have been times when prices have been many times that per ounce.

Deaf to Certain Sounds

Scientists claim that all of us who pride ourselves on our hearing are deaf to certain sounds.

KNIT JACKET BY CECILIA ANDERSON

It is not only the college girl who is going to sport this knit jacket for her own. It will be literally snatched up by the feminine world for golfing, for riding, for walking—for a hundred occasions when a jacket needs to be slipped on. This one is surely a surprise and a genuine find for—it is knitted of crepe paper! It really is. That knit crepe paper jacket is becoming an honest-to-goodness fashion instead of a mere passing fancy. The strips crocheted and knitted beautifully, wear sturdily and you have every shade and tint of the rainbow colors to choose from. Start knitting one of these jackets right away. You'll find yourself wearing it through the fall and under your suit or coat in winter. The jacket shown here is made of crepe paper in a neutral tint with red and blue edges. The directions for making it are simple, and best of all, the entire cost amounts to less than half a round dollar for you. If you've an eye out for elite, and if "do it now" is your motto for getting coming Christmas gifts together, you'll be making more than one.

BUTTONS IN FRONT HELP TO CHILDREN

Small children arriving at the age to be taught to dress themselves will learn more quickly if their garments button in the front. The foundation garment should consist of a small waist, on to which the panties may be buttoned.

Petticoats may be of the wide-armed-and-open-necked variety, which slip over the head without buttons. Little dresses and suits, which button or tie or snap down the front, can be found easily.

Little hangers may be purchased and a half-dozen hooks placed low inside the closet. As the child sheds his garments at night, he will take pride in placing them on hangers, "like mother does," and hanging them in the closet.

Unique New Fabrics for Shoes Entered for Fall

A thrilling new material has just been produced by the man who launched the pin-tucked kid which was such a success in the spring. It is kid, stitched and stitched every which way, so that the finished effect is oddly repellent. It has the advantage of combining practicality with great beauty and chic. Patent leather is a newcomer in the serious walking class and appears in the form of a low-heeled oxford. Alligator is our hardiest perennial. It holds its well-deserved place in the sun along with its less utilitarian cousin, lizard.

Bird on Nellie's Hat Makes Comeback in Fall Mode

It now looks as though you could get out your hat again with the bird on it—you know, the one folks sang about in 1910. And furthermore, you'll probably want to add a few side dishes for 1933 in the way of a feather cape, feather muff, feather purse and so on. You may even hide behind your feather fan and roll your big movie eyes from that point of vantage if you like.

College Coat Dress

In the college girl's wardrobe the coat dress may take the place of a suit. This model is in gray wool with detachable gray crepe sailor collar and bengaline gilet.

"Little Stories for Bedtime" by Thornton W. Burgess

JERRY MUSKRAT WAKES UP JUST IN TIME

that Reddy had said that he had quite for Jerry who was talking.

At that word Jerry was suddenly realized what he was about to do. In just one wee little minute more he would have been right out on the bank within easy jumping distance of Reddy. Hastily he pushed himself out from the bank and swam far enough out in the Smiling Pool to feel absolutely safe. Then he looked up at Reddy to see if the latter had noticed the haste with which he had left the bank instead of climbing out on it. He thought there was just a trace of disappointment in Reddy's eyes, but it passed so quickly he couldn't be sure.

Apparently Reddy could think of nothing but a new house like Jerry's, one on land and big enough for him. He went right on talking just as if he hadn't noticed Jerry's action at all. "If you only could show me how, I believe I could build a house. Anyway, I would be willing to try and to work hard," said he with his eyes half closed, as if trying to picture to himself what such a house would look like. "I certainly would be the envy of everybody on the Green Meadows and in the Green Forest, I believe such a house would tickle Mrs. Reddy almost to death. I must bring her over to see your house."

Once more Jerry was growing so interested in the idea of that house that without really knowing it he was padding toward the bank. Then as his feet touched bottom he remembered and made a half circle to deeper water and there floated lazily. "I'll be glad to have you bring Mrs. Reddy to see my house," said he. "I am afraid it isn't possible for me to show you how to build, but as I told you before I will be glad to tell you how."

Reddy jumped lightly to his feet. "That will be fine," he replied. "I have an engagement now, but if you have time to spare tomorrow night I will come over at about this time and we'll talk the idea over. I certainly would like a house like that." He glanced longingly towards Jerry's new house out in the Smiling Pool, then, wishing Jerry good-night, trotted away.

Bad Lightning

Bad lightning is a form of lightning which occurs as a slow moving bolt. It is a relatively slow moving bolt, which is a short distance, exploded without any damage, and leaves a large and very dark cloud, and it is often red in color. According to the weather bureau, there are apparently two types of bad lightning, one which goes through the air and the other rolls along some object such as a wire or fence as it advanced. Its source is not known but experts suggest that it may be a form of rock lightning in which the force is spent by the end of the discharge.

Salt From the Bahamas

Much of the salt once used in the United States came from Turk's island in the Bahamas. Bermudian ship owners enjoyed a monopoly on it.

So, when you broke the news to her she went all to pieces?"

"Yes, but it didn't take her long to collect herself."

Lady—If you're begging a favor, you might at least take your hands out of your pockets.

Tramp—Well, the truth is, lady, I'm beggin' a pair o' suspenders.

Young Wife—Oh, dear, I don't know what to use to raise my bread. I've tried everything.

"Now, this is going to hurt just a little."

Doing Fine

"Do you know that I have taken up story-writing as a career?"

"Said anything?"

"Yes. My watch, my saxophone and overcoat."

Case of Shock

Policeman—How did you knock this man down?

Motorist—I didn't, I pulled up to let him go across—and he fainted.

GIVING THEM A CHANCE

The giant airship was flying swiftly over azure blue seas. Suddenly land came in sight, and later the buildings of a big town. Midway over the town a look of concern came over the pilot's face.

He turned to his passengers.

"Did any of you ever hear that saying, 'See Naples and die?'" he asked.

"Why, yes!" they chorused eagerly.

"Good!" he replied. "We're over Naples now and something has gone wrong with the engine. Have a good look at it!"—Answers Magazine.

Running Away From It

He (hastily)—Er—just a moment, darling—that's my tailor, and I don't care to meet him.

She (hastily)—Why not?

"Well, as a matter of fact—he still owes me the receipt for the money for my dress suit!"

Fair Warning

"Pass the dessert, please, sir."

"If you eat another piece of pie you'll pop!"

"Pass the dessert, please, sir, and get out of the way!"—Kansas City Star.

Hoarding

City Man—Gracious heavens, even the cows have begun hoarding!

Country Man—You don't say.

City Man—Yes, here it is in the headlines: "Light native cow hides 6 1/2 cents."

FAST WORKER

So, when you broke the news to her she went all to pieces?"

"Yes, but it didn't take her long to collect herself."

Impossible

Lady—if you're begging a favor, you might at least take your hands out of your pockets.

Tramp—Well, the truth is, lady, I'm beggin' a pair o' suspenders.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Nov. 16 (P)—The stock market began to pay some attention to the inflationary aspects of sharply declining dollar rates today and prices of a number of leaders moved up 1 to 3 or more points in expanding trade.

Sterling spurted 11½ cents to another post-war high of 85.51½ and the sympathetic French franc trailed with a gain of 14½ a cent at 64.71½, also a new peak for the present currency. The domestic gold price was again unchanged. Equities moved forward steadily after the first hour. It was not a runaway market, but the trend apparently was upward. Wheat rallied nearly 2 cents a bushel, cotton steadied and rubber futures were in demand. Bonds, especially federal issues, drifted lower.

Shares of Hazel-Atlas Glass got up 6 points and those of Owens-Illinois were up about 4. Allied Chemical moved up 4 and National Distillers 3. Gainers of 1 to around 2 included American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, Cast-Western Union, American Can, Westinghouse, United Aircraft, Columbian Carbon, General Motors, Goodyear, New York Central, Union Pacific, Patino Mines, American Smelting, U. S. Smelting, Cerro De Pasco.

Local Death Record

The funeral of Thomas O'Brien, who died in California, was held this morning from the Murphy Funeral Home at 46 Maiden Lane and thence to St. Mary's Church, where a requiem Mass was offered for the repose of his soul by the Rev. Joseph P. Moore. The children's choir sang the responses. There were many beautiful floral offerings and the funeral cortège to St. Mary's cemetery, where interment was made, was a long one. The services at the grave were in charge of the Rev. Paul Burns.

Edward M. Boucher died at High Falls on Wednesday. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Saunders Boucher; two daughters, Mrs. John Graver and Miss Dolores Boucher; three sisters, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. P. J. Delaney and Mrs. H. B. Harrison, and a brother, J. LeRoy Boucher. Funeral services from the late home Friday morning at 9:15 o'clock and thence to St. Peter's Church in Rosendale, where at 10 o'clock a high Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of his soul. Interment will be in St. Peter's cemetery, Rosendale.

News of Interest to Members of Fraternal Societies

There will be no meeting of Minnesotans of Red Men tonight. The next meeting will be on November 23 at 8 p. m. at 24 Pine Grove avenue. All members are requested to be present as there is some very important business.

All members desiring to attend should get in touch with the royal matron or secretary of the local court.

25 Killed in Bus Mishap

Granada, Spain, Nov. 16 (P)—Twenty-five persons were killed today when a bus load of members of the Socialist party fell over a 250-foot cliff on the highway between Huercar and Castril. The bus was part of a caravan of Socialists who had attended a political meeting at Castril.

Disfranchisement

The laws which disfranchise persons vary in the different states. In nearly all of them those who have been convicted of felony or who are of unsound mind are disfranchised. Some states also disfranchise those convicted of treason or bribery or betting on elections; and those who are inmates of prisons, asylums or almshouses; some disfranchise for dueling, embezzlement of public funds, perjury and petit larceny. In the District of Columbia where there is no popular suffrage, citizens previously entitled to vote were all disfranchised by an act of congress in 1878 when the government was placed under direct control of congress.

Our company secures funds from the Reconstruction Finance Corp. to assist the financing of manufacturers, merchants and others in carrying out the program of the NRA. Sound security is required for collateral in the form of Chattels, but not the usual liquid or cash that banks most want. Local banks, clearing houses, Chambers of Commerce and other welfare bodies are requested to familiarize themselves with our plan of operation and inform their patrons and members. Interests on loans up to six months, 5%, and on loans up to three years, 6%.

While most banking circles, as well as brokerage houses, continued to display some nervousness over the foreign exchange situation and falling bond prices, various financial observers expressed the opinion that recently voiced fears regarding the government's credit were groundless. Total money in circulation on November 5, last, it was recalled, amounted to $2,673,666,664. The law requires a gold coverage of at least 40 per cent for outstanding currencies. On the old basis of gold at $29.57 an ounce, the government owned metal valued at some $4,559,666. At the present gold price, the gold in the federal vaults is valued at more than $5,000,000.

It is argued that the money circulation actually could be doubled without straining government credit, or exceeding the legal limit. The decline of the dollar, it was believed in some quarters, may eventually bring a rush of foreign capital into American securities. In line with this thought, or hope, was said that almost any European currency can now buy dollars cheap and with these same dollars American property can be purchased at prices which have not advanced in proportion to the decline in money values.

All-America Bids Run "Hot and Cold" On Nation's Grids

First-movers of One Week Show Flat-footed the Next—Promising Voice for Small College Candidate in Head, but Spotlight Shows Weakness too.

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 16 (AP)—It's nearly ten years since the most famous exponent of the All-America died, Walter Camp, but there appears no less enthusiasm than ever in the rush now under way to paste the all-star football labels for 1933 on the standing-out players from coast to coast.

It's just an old American custom, the kind of an argument in which one and all can participate, whatever the complications may be in attempting to name eleven men as the superiors to all the rest in a game played so widely and so well in all corners of the gridiron map. Its existence is sustained by custom and encouraged by popular demand.

The returns so far in the ninth annual Associated Press All-American consensus indicate observers have had more than usual difficulty making their choices and then making them stick. The competition seems to be so close and hard fought this year that there is little or no assurance that a star player will look like an All-American two weeks in a row. The ball carrier who runs wild behind expert blockers one week and dashes mostly into the arms of opposing tacklers the next is giving the experts many a headache.

Each Week's Surprises

Take a few examples: Cy Grant, the Georgia backfield star, came north heralded by many Dixie experts as the South's leading All-American candidate, yet it was his running mate, Homer Key, who starred in the Yale Bowl. Mike Sebastian, elusive Pittsburgh back, has been "hot and cold" this season. A coast critic suggested Bill Corbus, Stanford guard, was below form this year but a few days later Corbus was almost the whole show in heating Southern California. As a sophomore Ed Krause looked like a greater tackle at times than his All-American running mate, Joe Kurth, at Notre Dame, but Krause has been obscured this year in his team's debacle.

The reports nevertheless show a few standouts, for consistency as well as exceptional ability. They include Charles Bernard, Michigan center; Jack Buckler, triple-threat Army halfback; Fred Crawford, Duke tackle, and George Henry Sauer, Nebraska fullback. Any All-American consensus compiled at this stage would certainly include all four of these players but most observers want to study the final returns, especially the results of games this Saturday and next, before they go "out on the limb" to stay with their selections.

The "Small College" Wall

From many gridiron sideline comes the plaintive "If this player was only on a big college, he would be a sure-fire All-American." The leading pro teams furnish evidence that this is probably true but the old ballyhoo still plays a vital part in the business, to the distinct advantage of the major college performer who gets the headlines. For that matter, in nine cases out of ten, this so-called "Big Leaguer" has to earn any all-star rating he receives and probably deserves it. The spotlight reveals short-comings as well as successes.

Current Candidates

The list of All-American candidates to date is by no means complete but the following players have been most prominently mentioned in Associated Press returns:

Ends: Smith, University of Washington; Petoskey, Michigan; Larson, Minnesota; Geisler, Centenary; Drexel, Notre Dame; Manske, Northwestern; Skladany, Pittsburgh.

Tackles: Crawford, Duke; Harvey, Holy Cross; Wistert, Michigan; C. Jorgenson, St. Mary's; Gentry, Oklahoma; Fehring, Purdue; Ceppi, Princeton; Kilcullen, Yale.

Guards: Corbus, Stanford; Hopke, Alabama; Rosenberg, Southern California; Gallus, Ohio State; Burzio, Carnegie; Jablonsky, Army.

Centers: Bernard, Michigan; Del Isola, Fordham; Coats, University of California at Los Angeles.

Quarterbacks: Johnson, Army; Benyon, Illinois; Pardoner, Purdue; Warburton, Southern California; Montgomery, Columbia.

Halfbacks: Buckler, Army; Everhardus, Michigan; Purvis, Tulane; Wilson, St. Mary's; Danowski, Fordham; Grant, Georgia; Sebastian, Pittsburgh; Nott, Detroit; Franklin, Oregon State.

Fullbacks: Sauer, Nebraska; Lund, Minnesota; Mikulak, Oregon; Weinstock, Pittsburgh.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By the Associated Press)

Cincinnati—Vincent Hambright, Cincinnati, outpointed Jackie Purvis, Indianapolis, (10); Paul Thobe, Covington, Ky., and Kid Wright, Richmond, Ind., drew, (6).

Reno, Nev.—Al Gomes, 138, Sacramento, Calif., and Ernie Peters, 139, Reno, drew, (10); Loui Rogers, 147, San Diego, knocked out Jimmy Mello, 145, Oakland, (2).

WRESTLING LAST NIGHT

(By the Associated Press)

New York—Gino Garibaldi, 214, New York, threw Dick Daviscourt, 225, California, 25-06.

Cleveland—Joe Savoldi, 212, Three Oaks, Mich., threw Joe Malowicz, 207, Utica, N. Y., 23-07.

DENVER'S "THREE PIONEERS" END SEVEN-YEAR ALLIANCE

For seven years, ever since they enlisted together on their high school team, these three stars of the Denver University Pioneers have been playing side by side. Ed Jackson, halfback, is at the left, Al Thomas, stellar quarterback, on the right, and Fred Carlson, center, inset.

Rosendale Firemen Will Start Season Saturday

The Rosendale Firemen are anxious for Saturday to roll around so that they can start their basketball season, meeting as opponents the Spinnys of Port Ewen, who have won several games already. Lots of action is expected.

Plenty of ginger is expected also in the two preliminaries, one between the Rexall Aces and the Irish Block Five of Wilbur and the other ed out for the New York University game that year.

Lexington, Va.—Even football players have to "pull their punches" sometimes. In a dummy scrimmage against Richmond plays yesterday the Virginia Military Institute Varsity rushed in and nabbed the C team's ball carrier so fast that the coaches had to halt the action and tell the regulars to let the scrubs carry out their assignments so they could see what an offense they are going up against.

New Brunswick, N. J.—Lou Gruen, Rutgers guard, is a real example of the versatile athlete. In addition to playing football, he has starred at basketball both at guard and forward, played in the outfield, caught and pitched for the baseball team and done some good work in the weight events for the track squad.

Detroit—A good many young men have a real argument to settle when Detroit and Michigan State play November 25. It winds up the football carriers of 13 Detroit players and eleven from Michigan State and it's the rubber game for them. In their two years of varsity play the teams have divided decisions.

PUNTS and PASSES

(By the Associated Press)

Chester, Pa.—Although the Pennsylvania Military Cadets realize they are tackling a tough assignment when they play the great Army football team Saturday, they're not discouraged about the prospect. "If we can raise up our air game a few more notches of efficiency," says Coach Jud Timm, "we may surprise the Army eleven." The P. M. C. air game, incidentally, functioned quite efficiently against Delaware last week.

New York—Who said depression? With more big game to go, Fordham already has shattered all its previous football attendance records. A total of 185,000 fans have turned out for the Rams' games so far and 40 or 50,000 more are expected to see the Oregon State clash Saturday. Fordham's best previous total was 150,000 three years ago and 78,000 turned the Notre Dame game a favorite Remoring The String.

The Pittsburgh Panthers have been quite so embarrassed about 6-3 licking they took from Minnesota since the Gophers trampled over the highly-regarded Iowa on.

This happened on the same day that Pitt was blanking Notre Dame for the second straight. It emphasized the stoutness of defense that Bernie Bierman built up with a young varsity at Minneapolis.

Dick Crayke, flashy Iowa brawler, is the only nationally hooded star to make much headway through the Gopher defense but his only long run was on an intercepted pass, not from screens.

Dick Cullum, in the Minnow Journal notes that Duane Ferguson, the Purdue ball-carrying showed a net loss of six yards in scrummage against Minnesota; Mike Sebastian, Pitt's climax, registered a net loss of 10 yards; and hands the defensive ire wreath to Butch Larson, right end.

IDEAL PARK

Ideal Park, Nov. 16.—M. Powley of Kingston was among the lucky hunters in this place, when a very large deer one day last week was shot. Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison a family of New York city spent the weekend at their home here.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of Mrs. Jean Gardner of Mr. Thompson, who died recently. Mrs. Gardner was a long resident of this place and was greatly missed by her many friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tolay are spending a few days with relatives in Kingston.

Mrs. Mabelle De Vahl of White Plains spent Monday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. De Vahl.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baucher left Sunday for their home in St. Petersburg, Florida, where they will spend the winter months.

A WORD TO THE PEOPLE OF KINGSTON

There are a lot of words in this announcement, but don't skip a single one. It's the first of a series of important announcements which will have a definite dollars-and-cents value to you. It's the story of a big industry that has come to town. And even from the standpoint of civic interest, you will want to know all about it. Read on!

THIS is the story of a great consolidation.

Four great forces in the oil industry—leaders all—have become one. And out of this union is born a character of service new to the motorists of this great section.

The companies which have consolidated are:

AMERICAN OIL COMPANY
and its subsidiaries

PAN AMERICAN PETROLEUM & TRANSPORT COMPANY
and its subsidiaries

MEXICAN PETROLEUM CORP.

LORD BALTIMORE FILLING STATIONS, Inc.

Who Are They?

Where do they stand in the oil industry?

Together as a unit, these companies represent one of the major oil groups of the country—with very big resources, large available crude production and pipeline systems, refineries, complete research laboratories, large tank car and motor truck fleets, numerous ocean terminals, many hundreds of bulk plants, and thousands of service station outlets. A vast and far-flung system.

Leaders Individually

Leaders Collectively

Individually, each company has risen to leadership in a specific field—through conspicuous merit of distinctive service and distinctive products.

Now collectively, they can offer to the motorists and industry of this territory and the entire Atlantic Seaboard—from Maine to Florida and inland—the benefits of all these fine facilities, and the distinctive products themselves—something never before possible.

In the series of announcements to follow, we'll tell you more about this great organization—its resources—its facilities—its products—under the theme...

"American" Marches Ahead!

Watch for them!... Read them!... Profit by them!
